

Introduction

3D InCites is kicking off 2014 with a two-part Europe in 3D tour, visiting companies focused in the 3D integration space. Part One will take place in advance of the European 3D TSV Summit, which takes place in Grenoble, January 21-23, 2014. Part Two will take place in advance of the DATE 2014 3D Workshop, March 28, 2014. Full coverage with photos, blogs, social media and a full trip report of the entire tour will appear on 3D InCites and its associated social media platforms. Part One is sold out, but 3D InCites is now looking for European companies interested in participating in Part Two.

Sponsorship

Sponsorship of 3D InCites' Europe in 3D will include a visit to your facility for an update on activities related to 2.5D and 3D integration technologies. The one-day visit includes a facilities tour, overview of operations, photo opportunities, and interviews/presentations with the executive team.

Sponsors will receive:

- A dedicated trip report on 3D InCites, detailing your company visit.
- Slide show of photos from the visit.
- Logo placement in the Europe in 3D special section on 3DInCites.com
- Logo inclusion in a special edition 3D Tour of Europe eNewsletter
